LEEJA'S HOUSING CORNER

featuring Kefz Lux's home on Tonberry

Hello and welcome, fellow housing enthusiasts, to another edition of Leeja's Housing Corner! Summer is here and the weather has been perfect, so let's take a trip to the beach on Elemental and visit Kefz Lux's house.

The first thing I notice when I see Kefz's house is that they are using the Half-timbered House Walls, my personal favorite! A straight path of Brick Paving leads directly to the front door. Eastern Cherry Trees and Oriental Grass beautifully adorn the entrance and line the front gate. To the left of the entrance, a Wooden Deck sits between a lush and vibrant Lakeland Flower Garden patch and the front door.

On the opposite side of the yard, Kefz created a small sitting area using an Oaken Bench, a Lattice Planter as a lovely backdrop, and the wonderful La Noscean Grape Pergola as an overhead covering.

Another raised Wooden Deck provides a breathtaking view of the beach and the crystal clear blue waters of the Mist. I can see myself spending quite some time on this deck basking in that view and the warm summer breeze!

Heading inside, I was immediately awestruck at the detail in the foyer. The placement of the Cracked Arch Window, which has been inset against several White Rectangular Partitions and accented with a Rose Trellis and Oldrose Wall Planter, is wonderfully done. The sunlight streaming through the window casts a lovely shadow on the ground, even catching some of the roses from the planter.

Some built-in shelves are to the right, created using the Mummer's Wardrobe, along with a sitting area with a built-in library. Kefz has created the illusion of a large window here, as well, using Verdant Partitions and one of the larger Aquariums. This is one of my favorite designs that some modern designs include. It's simple, but really captures that sleek, modern look!

Straight ahead from the foyer, is a living room. Two Leather Sofas, dyed black surround a coffee table that Kefz has created using two Manor Fireplaces. Atop the coffee table, a lit cigar sits in the Ashtray adjacent to an Allagan Tomestone of Frivolity. The scene this creates, again, is simple yet effective in capturing that sought-after modern design. An extra large flat screen TV, made from two Manor Fireplaces, is floated against the back wall which has been created using the backs of Demon Wall Sculptures.

To the left of the foyer, a set of steps leads upstairs to the living space. This beautiful wooden staircase was created by floating several Mounted Bookshelves—a very inspired look and a painstaking task given the time it must have taken to create!

Upstairs, an Azim Steppe Phasmascape illuminates the bedroom and hallway. The window here was created by placing Wood Slat Partitions on both sides of the phasmascape and placing Manor Fireplaces to act as the window sill and lower wall. I love the added touch of the Hanging Planter Shelf against the blue sky of the phasmascape.

The bedroom, to the right of the stairs, is clean and sleek. A modernized platform bed sits against the back wall, in between two wooden end tables. Another Mummer's Wardrobe creates another set of built-in shelves adjacent to the wardrobe. The lofted bedroom overlooks the living room, and is sectioned off by framing the room with the Wooden Handrails. Two Butterfly Specimens add a splash of color to the otherwise neutral interior. I really enjoyed the layout of this bedroom, especially the view of the living room from above—that was really something special!

Last, but certainly not least, is the bath area. An Oriental Bathtub sits snugly in the small room, with a Verdant Partition accenting the back wall and a single Alchemical Lantern emitting soft light. The small bath area is relaxing and extremely inviting despite its size!

Well, I certainly enjoyed my visit to Kefz's home. I hope you all did as well! If you are a fan of modern interior design, or just want to take a look at this gem for yourselves, take a trip over to The Mist on Tonberry. Kefz can be found in Ward 14, Plot 36.

As always, I am forever on the hunt for houses, apartments, and more to visit, so if you or anyone you may know want to be featured in an upcoming article, give me a shout! If you're on Primal, you can find me on Lamia ~~afking in Limsa~~ hanging out in Limsa or in our Discord. Until next time, happy decorating!

SEA OF CLOUDS (9.9, 28.7, 0.7)

Upon her appointment to the Rose Knights of Camp Cloudtop, Ser Marielle discovered this heart-shaped island whilst on the deck of her airship. It reminded her of the provenance of lovers beginning their journey together, and so the island was named.

Photographer

Jenova, Aether

Hey! I'm Varinia but most people call me Vari! I am over the moon with excitement to be a part of the GPOSERS team!

I started playing Final Fantasy XIV in June of 2018 with some friends on Crystal. I picked Highlanders, loving how buff they were, and chose gladiator thinking it was a cool class that I would love to play. When I was told that it was a tank I quickly changed my mind and picked up summoner, loving the idea of a pet that follows you everywhere!

Sadly my friends didn't enjoy the game as much as I did so I moved my character over to Aether where I knew a friend. I joined their free company and I have been with them for three years now. Then the fantasia addiction started and I wanted to be every race at least once! But I still haven't decided what race is THE ONE yet.

After playing for a few months I was told about GPOSERS and GShade, then I really fell in love with gpose and came up with different ways to pose my character. I decided to try posting my pictures on Instagram after someone gave me the idea and so I did. I mostly post glamors now, but I throw in some other shoots here and there.

At one point I did give raiding a try on monk before the rework, but the group I was with fell apart after we had cleared E5S due to real-life situations. I spend a lot of my time in the game now taking screenshots of glamours I have made, running dungeons (since I love to revisit the ones from older expansions), and farming for glamour pieces. My home is Jenova so if you ever see me running about, feel free to say hello! I don't bite, I promise!

And with that I say: see ya around!

Photographer & Glamour Artist

Twintania, Light

Hi there! Josie here, and I can't describe how excited I am to finally be part of the GPOSERS team.

I started playing Final Fantasy XIV during Heavensward on Lich as a Miqo'te white mage. During the middle of Stormblood, when I felt things were getting a little stale I decided to try raiding, which is how I met my real life husband and partner in crime. We started raiding together up until recently, I decided to leave my raiding, healing and PS4 days behind me. This was when I discovered the joys of GShade and tanking. Now I spend most of my time learning how to take tankbusters to the face, occasionally getting lost in dungeons, scouting new locations for future gpose shoots, and wishing Viera could wear hats.

Speaking of bunny girls, as a former fantasia addict, I finally managed to settle on a Viera. I love glamours, so I need to have at least three for each class I'm playing at the time, even just for levelling. I'm constantly finding new ideas and inspiration for new ones, which can range from pink, fluffy and just adorable (think unicorns), to character cosplays, to something maybe more gothic and spooky. Finding time to farm glams is always something I'm looking forward to doing, seeing as that's where I spend most of my time nowadays. Either that, or doing events with my free company buddies and some of the great friends I've made along the way.

Hope to see you around! o/
